Taxpayers Association

The Upland Taxpayers Association will not take any further action on their move to cancel Upland School District Feb. 23 override. The group had charged the school district with three violations of the elections section of the State Education code.

The group met over the weekend according to Doug Blackie, president of UTA, and made the decision.

Blackie said some annonymous letters were received by the group and they were being checked out by various members.

The letters charged the school administration with violation of the State Educational Code in school electioneering.

"We can do nothing about them unless the people who wrote them contact us," said Blackie.

Whew!--Sewer settlement

Sewage and rock trucks again garnered the major attention of the Upland City Council at its session Monday, Feb. 1, with the former apparently ending in agreement and the latter still a problem.

After considerable discussion, the council agreed to sign the three-party pact with Ontario and the Chino Basin Municipal Water District with two provisions.

The provisions are that the words "may" in the termination agreement be changed to "shall" and that the real property would be included when, and if, Chino Basin Municipal Water District turns over the tertiary plant to another company.

The termination agreement approved by Ontario and the CB-MWD prior to Monday night reads:

22. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT. If a public agency is formed in accordance with the procedures described by the District Reorganization Act of 1965 as amended, or such other law as may be then applicable to the formation of the regional agencies, which represents at least all of the taxpayers of District and which shall be statutorily empowered to assume all obligations and liabilities and to perform all functions and services specified in this Agreement, then this Agreement may be terminated and title only to those tertiary treatment facilities to be constructed by District under this Agreement may be transferred to such agencies; provided, however, that transfer of title to said facilties shall not occur until and unless approved by a majority of the votes cast by qualified voters voting at the first succeeding general election of District occurring within 90 days after the effective date of formation of such agency.

Councilman Max Hawkins, Mayor George Gibson and Mrs. Doreen Carpenter, city clerk, were authorized to sign the agreement with Ontario and CB-MWD officials.

A large contingent from Los Olivos area attended to speak to the council on the subject of the rock trucks. They were complaining that the trucks had been shifted from Euclid Avenue to the narrower Campus Avenue which runs north through Los Olivos. The trucks are running from the west side of Upland to the 16th Street location of Southern California Edison's new Padua substation, now under construction.

After about 1-1/2 hours of discussion, with a slight breather, the council ordered an emergency resolution drawn limiting the vehicle weight on Campus Avenue between Foothill Boulevard and 14th Street to five tons. In effect, this cancels use of the street by the heavier rock trucks.

A special committee studying the rock truck situation, composed of residents of Euclid Avenue, rock truck representatives and Councilmen Ronald Rossitter and John McCarthy, has been increased by three. The three will be residents in the Los Olivos area.

The council is also planning a delegation to Sacramento to talk with state officials, including the Governor, to get speeds reduced on Euclid Avenue. The delegation was slated at the suggestion of Councilman Rossitter.

She misses the mountains

High school coed returns from Africa

"People aren't the same everywhere. To understand them, you have to understand their differences.

"When you study the history of a country, you can see how history and culture influence ideas, how a political system is formed and the way people think."

Patty Bescoby, 17, Upland High School American Field Service student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bescoby of Mt. Baldy, recently returned from Africa. She was talking about her impressions of people after spending a year in another country.

Her experiences, traveling from her home in Mt. Baldy, to the Orange Free State in the Republic of South Africa and living for a year with an Afrikaan family, have changed her way of looking at many things, Patty indicated.

Although Patty insists she has not matured "that much" in a year, it's obvious that coming into contact with a way of life extremely different from her own has broadened her way of thinking.

Patty had never heard of Bloemfontein, the city in which she has lived for the past year, and very little about South Africa. She was not introduced to the Afrikaan language until her language records arrived two days before she was to leave for South Africa, she said.

Assured she would have little need for learning the language, Patty found the all-girl school she attended was taught in Afrikaan and the family with whom she lived spoke mainly Afrikaan, the language of 60 per cent of the white population of South Africa.

Fortunately, Patty found the language easy and by the end of her stay was fairly conversant in it.

The big difference in life here and there, Patty found, was in school. The school she went to was attended by 500 girls, about two-thirds of them residents. She and her "sister" Annette Smith were day students.

Girls were required to wear uniforms to school, tie their hair and not wear make-up or jewelry. This made the decision of what to wear easy, Patty said.

School began at 8 a.m. and lasted to 1:30, when the girls returned to the P. F. C. Smith home for their lunch. Afternoons were devoted to sports or study.

"Their idea of school is different," Patty said. "you go to school to learn." After school are sports, etc. School is formalized," she said. "You must stand for the teacher. That was a new thing for me. You even stand when the teacher passes by while you are outside the school building. It seemed like I always stood or sat at the wrong time, but they were very patient with me."

She said education there was based on exams. Students are given the option of leaving school at the end of the 10th grade, or doing the last two years and passing a state-wide examination. If you do not pass the exam, you do not graduate. After leaving high school students "are not prepared to do much," she said.

"I missed the mountains most," said hill-dweller Patty. "The Free State is perfectly flat. I just wasn't used to so much sky." But, she said, although the scenery there and in Rhodesia and Zambia was markedly different from what I am used to, I found it "beautiful" and she would love to go back again.

Another thing she discovered, "The United States is not the center of everything."

"People there don't want to go to the States. Overseas to them means Europe. They don't like what they think is the bigness and hurry of the U.S. They think people here don't care about one another.

"A lot of people know about the U.S., but nothing specific. What they hear about in newspapers are our riots, or other big events. Weeks went by without the U.S. appearing in their newspapers," she said.

TV and the moon landing rated high in interest, she said. They are getting TV this year and are quite excited about it.

Afrikaans are very defensive about their country, Patty said. "They won't give up their ideas to please the rest of the world, and they think the world is closed-minded about their problems, such as apartheid."

She said she didn't try to convert any of the Afrikaans to her way of thinking. "I was just there to see what's going on, to try to understand their reasoning. They didn't seem to resent it if I didn't agree, but they were very willing to talk about their side of it."

Patty is very happy to be back with her parents. She returned to Upland High this week to begin the last half of her senior year, which she says will be the "most fun."

She hopes to continue her education at UCLA in political science and law, an aim she had before she left for Africa.

The difference now is that she would like to work for the government, perhaps in the diplomatic corps, which would bring her into contact with people of other lands. Perhaps she could then put some of her new understanding to work in bringing countries a little closer together.

Welcome home

Mrs. Alan Bescoby, right, of Mt. Baldy, happily shows how she feels about her daughter, Patty, returning from a year in Africa. Patty's hat is from Basutoland, a country on the edge of the Orange Free State. Flag in the background is the one depicting the Republic of South Africa.

3 Rs' hurt district

BY JENNY KIRKPATRICK

(Editor's note: This is a second in a series discussing the current Upland School District's problems. Last week's story explored the disenchantment of citizens with the district which triggered the formation of the Upland Taxpayers Association.)

The 3 Rs as we once knew them, reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic, have been replaced with rioting, rising costs and reduced revenue.

Even though rioting has not appeared on the curriculum of the elementary districts, the districts are getting the backlash through the other 2 Rs, rising costs and reduced revenue.

The state, who once matched funds with the districts, that is, 50 percent of the revenue coming from state sources and 50 percent from local taxing, has, because of the modern 3 Rs, been cut back. The state now pays 35 percent and the districts must pick up the rest of the tab as best they can.

These factors are plaguing the USD and causing many of their problems. How to finance a school program that has a built-in mandate to administer the state educational code programs and yet keep costs down requires a bit of doing.

In an interview with Ernest Kirkland, assistant superintendent business USD, the problem was explored in depth.

Until two years ago the USD was in the black and with rising costs and reduced revenue it was decided that the only way out was deficit spending.

"Inflation has pushed costs up at the rate of 5 to 6 percent a year and the income from the state has dropped," Kirkland said. "Another factor contributing to the deficit spending is that enrollment in the district started to drop at that time."

Some revenue is derived by the state reimbursing the schools on an average daily attendance: the more children, the more money, and vice versa.

In addition, the state started more mandated programs. For example, the kindergarten program. "It used to be you could use a single teacher for two sessions. Now you have to have two teachers for two sessions and the state isn't paying for it. You can't cut costs by eliminating the kindergarten program. The state doesn't allow you to stop it. Where do you get the money for it?"

"There are no simple answers," said Kirkland. "Not when you have the federal government starting programs like the Public Law 876 which pays us for having children of government workers one year and then cutting down on the money the next year."

"The federal government has the philosophy that if a program started by the government is good enough, then the local taxpayers should be willing to pay for it."

Other factors cited by Kirkland were inflation, programs set up by the state and federal government without sufficient funds to carry them out, leveling off in student population because of lack of anticipated population growth.

Commenting on the taxpayer-citizens criticism of not cutting costs, Kirkland said these are measures that have been taken in the district so far to reduce the fiscal debt: cut down on administrative staff and reduce service in the cafeteria; reduce bus service and eliminated field trips, sold two cars to reduce vehicles available to administrative staff; cut down on number of substitute teachers and use of principals and nurses doing some substitute teaching; elimination of one psychologist; cut instrumental music below the fifth grade level; elimination of preventive maintenance with only emergency maintenance being done; no capital outlay.

The district's history of tax elections in recent years has been small. In 1957 a tax election was held and a $1.85 per $100 assessed valuation tax was levied for four years. In 1961 this same amount was voted for an indefinite period. In July of 1970 a 75 cent per $100 of assessed valuation tax for an indefinite period was requested and failed to pass. Now on Feb. 23, 95 cents per $100 valuation has been asked.

It's Happy Birthday for all February celebrants. You are, astrologically speaking, a late Aquarian or pure Pisces. Check the nearest seer, astrology book or make up your own future, but do have a happy birthday.

If you'd like something new, try a Chinese horoscope. It is now the Year of the Boar, 4469, and is a year that holds the promise of inner strength and prosperity for all

This month is also A. Lincoln's and G. Washington's birthdays and the little cupid's day -- 12, 22 and 14, if you want precise dates.

P.S. And, for the four-day weekender, your time has arrived again and you can chase the "blahs" with a wild weekend from the 13th to the 16th.

Foothill Freeway dedication

It was a lot of fun meeting all of the La Verne and San Dimas officials at the Foothill Freeway dedication last Thursday. I was impressed with their friendliness and talent. Mayor Frank Johnson did an excellent job at the dedication ceremonies, as did Mayor D. F. Hooper of San Dimas at the luncheon at Via Verde. Father Dominic Krew of Holy Name of Mary Catholic Church gave a delightful invocation.

The main speakers invited faded away one by one. Congressman John Rousselot had to go to see the President and Robert Carleson, the new director of Social Welfare of the State of California, had to go see the Governor, so that left Supervisor Frank Bonelli, a long time acquaintance of mine, to be the dedication speaker. I was sorry to see him still ailing and hope for his speedy recovery. Frank has done many fine things for the Los Angeles County area he covers. I know, because I lived in La Mirada and Whittier which he also supervises.

Le Roy Boys' Home

Le Roy Boys' Home board is installed

LA VERNE-Officers on the board of directors at Le Roy Boys' Home were seated for a second year at an installation dinner held at the home.

Cale Coons was again seated as president of the board, which he has served as a member for four years. Assistant manager of the downtown Pomona branch of Bank of America, Coons is active in the YMCA, Pomona Host Lions, Pomona First Baptist Church, and the Parks and Recreation Commission of Pomona.

Malcolm Birnie will serve as treasurer, Ray Lepire as secretary, and Dr. Lewis Fisher as vice president.

Michael Suzuki of Sacramento was guest speaker of the evening. The State Welfare Department employe congratulated officials of the home for their progress in child care and treatment work. He noted that more federal, state and county agencies are relying increasingly on private agencies such as Le-Roys', because the necessary human services cannot be given through large government departments.

The dinner was served by the Gents, a high school service club at the home, and the home economics department from Bonita High School.

On Tuesday, Feb. 2, Bracken met with the tract representatives to firm up Friday's decisions in preparation for another meeting to be held tomorrow, Friday, Feb. 5.

According to Bracken, present and future developments in the homeowners' case against the builders are:

- A letter was hand-carried to Congressman Jerry Pettis, who was in Sacramento over the weekend listing the homeowners' grievances.

- Pettis has asked for letters from the local school district and fire department and the West End Sheriff's Substation stating the added stress, if any, the new tract would cause to those agencies. Pettis also asked for petitons from the homeowners.

- The petitions are presently being circulated in the Alta Loma area by the representatives of each tract.

- The retention of an attorney hinges on Pettis' decision after reviewing the requested literature he is to receive.

- The homeowners will picket and distribute literature to prospective buyers in other Crowell-Levanthal homes in the area.

- Many residents living within the Crowell-Levanthal Stone Ridge and Country Village tracts have put "for sale" signs on their homes.

- County officials have been asked to attend tomorrow night's meeting.

The meeting will be held at Carnelian Elementary School at 8 p.m.

Leading the way

Projects underway

Zone 1 flood control

Problem areas

This map was used by those attending the recent Flood Control Advisory Committee meeting to familiarize themselves with the area to be covered (dashes and arrows) and the problems they would view (numbers). Although fog canceled the entire trip, the committee still met to consider current and future work in Zone 1 which lies between the San Antonio Channel on the west and Beech and Citrus Avenues in Fontana on the east.

CUCAMONGA -- Several flood control projects are about to begin, are underway, or nearing completion in Zone 1 of the County Flood Control District, according to Arthur Sidler, flood control engineer.

Zone 1 runs from the San Antonio Channel on the west to Beech and Citrus Avenues on the east, the mountains on the north and Prado Flood Control Basin on the south.

On the map above, number one is the Cucamonga County Water District office from which the County Flood Control Advisory Committee for Zone 1 was to leave on an inspection tour. Fog cancelled the trip.

The main areas of concern are numbered. Locations where work is scheduled, underway or nearing completion include:

No. 4 -- South of Old Town (Northtown) a channel will be constructed from the Santa Fe Railway south to the Turner Basin below San Bernardino Avenue. Dip crossings at San Bernardino Avenue and Turner Avenue are included. Estimated cost of the project, now underway, is $150,000.

No. 12 -- Included with this is No. 11. Construction is about to begin on a debris basin west of the Frankish Basin (above San Antonio Intercept) for $200,000. Also, approximately 75,000 yards of debris are being removed from Frankish Canyon and Marble Canyon Basins above San Antonio Intercept.

Nos. 8 and 9 -- Work has begun on the Cucamonga spreading grounds on Basin No. 3. Also work is scheduled to restore eroded sections of the levee and reconstruct a spillway and pipe outlet structure. Estimated cost of the work will be $250,000.

No. 10 -- Work has begun on the crosswalls in Cucamonga Creek and the removal of 250,000 cubic yards of debris. Project cost estimate is $190,000.

No. 16 and 17 -- Halting erosion and doing emergency work in the Demens Basin has been underway for sometime and is nearing completion. The emergency work included the basin levee and the temporary spillway. Cost of the work was $60,000.

No. 20 -- Work has been underway "for sometime and is well along" on the Deer Creek spreading grounds above Chaffey College. The $200,000 project included repairing deflector levees for the protection of the Alta Loma and Cucamonga areas below.

No. 21 -- In the Day Creek spreading grounds, work is beginning on the west levee which broke out in the 1969 storms. Day Creek spreading grounds are above Highland Ave. in Alta Loma just east of Deer creek.

No. 28 -- The San Sevaine spreading grounds, north of Fontana, is the scene of levee restoration work.

No. 20 -- Also north of Fontana, emergency work on the Rich Basin is well advanced. Excavation of the 300,000 cubic yards of debris was estimated at $125,000.

Nos. 30-31 -- In the Hawker-Crawford area above Fontana work is beginning to excavate 7,000 feet and line the Lytle Creek Channel with riprap on the levee. Cost of the project is $190,000.

No. 32 -- Emergency work in the San Sevaine Basin includes debris removal estimated at $150,000.

All of the work is proceeding on an emergency basis, according to Sidler. Immediate measures were necessary because of the enormous amount of watershed lost in the Meyers fire which stretched from Upland to Etiwanda.

Supervisors Daniel Mikesell and Ruben Ayala have made repeated appearances before federal representatives to urge assistance, Sidler said. They have been "successful in getting funds" to help alleviate some of the problems, he said.

The work, which stretches across a 16-mile front, is due for completion in March. Sidler says the Flood Control District hopes to have the emergency projects completed by then, or sooner.

Heart Fund chairman establishes new record

UPLAND - When Mrs. R. Fred Price kicked off Upland's 1971 Heart Fund campaign Feb. 1, she established a record in San Bernardino County.

It is the 14th consecutive year she has served as chairman of her city's fund-raising campaign.

"Mrs. Price's devotion to the fight against heart disease is an inspiration to everyone associated with the Heart Association," said Dr. Arthur S. Weissbein, president.

Mrs. Price equaled the previous high in years of service when she directed last year's drive.

"Her achievement is all the more remarkable because she has never failed to meet Upland's goal," said Lowell V. Trask, chairman for the county-wide campaign.

During the month-long drive, Mrs. Price will be in charge of more than 500 volunteers who will climax Upland's crusade with a house-to-house drive on Heart Sunday, Feb. 28. The city's goal this year is $7,000.

Mrs. Price, as chairman for the past 13 years, has raised $69,742 in the fight against heart disease.

Often referred to as "Mrs. Upland," for her many years of philanthropic endeavors and civic activities, Mrs. Price is a past president and treasurer of the Ontario Business and Professional Women's Club, a former officer of the Upland Women's Club, life member of the American Legion Auxiliary, honorary member of the Ontario Soroptimist Club and a member of Bethel Congregation Church, Ontario.

W.E. Demos will meet

UPLAND -- The regular meeting of the West End Democratic Club will be held Monday, Feb. 8, at the Upland Inn, East 9th St. and First Ave., Upland.

A no host cocktail hour will be held from 7-8 p.m. At 8, general meeting will be held.

Speaker will be Chester Wright, professor from Chaffey College, who was a 1970 congressional nominee. His subject will concern the State Central Committee Convention held at Sacramento recently. He will also tell of various matters coming before the Legislature.

The Democratic Club is open for anyone to send in a good slogan for the next Gala that will be Democratic and bear in mind the oncoming election, club sources said.

Anyone who would be interested in placing an ad in the Gala program is asked to contact headquarters, 985-5318. The souvenir programs are read by several hundred people.

Christian Science

A deeper and more dependable basis for overcoming anger and violence will be brought out in Christian Science churches Sunday.

One of the Scriptural passages in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit" reads: "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."

A related passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. God has made man capable of this, and nothing can vitiate the ability and power divinely bestowed on man."

Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1429 N. Euclid Ave. Ontario, begin at 11 a.m.

Ground breaking ceremonies for Gerontology Center at USC

With a goal of improving the quality of life for older persons everywhere, dignitaries today conducted groundbreaking ceremonies for the Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center at the University of Southern California.

The planned $4 million structure, which will house one of the nation's leading centers of human aging research and training, is scheduled for completion late in 1972.

Dr. Jonas Salk, world-renowned scientist and discoverer of the original polio vaccine, now director of the Salk Institute, San Diego, was principal speaker at the event.

The ceremonies also featured participation by older Americans representing the two-and-three-quarter million members of the National Retired Teachers Association and the American Association of Retired Persons, who have contributed more than half the cost of the center.

Named for the late Dr. Andrus, USC alumna who founded the two associations, the multi-discipline center will include eight major laboratories devoted to research on the problems of aging. Designed by architect Edward Durell Stone, the 88,000-square-foot, full-brick building also will contain a library, classroom and other facilities, including a liaison office to function between the university and the two associations, lounges, gardens and reception areas for older visitors.

USC President Dr. John R. Hubbard presented certificates of achievement to the national presidents of NRTA and AARP, Mrs. Katherine Pearce of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mr. Fred Faassen of Zion, Ill.

Some 250 NRTA-AARP members from 50 states attended the groundbreaking, a highlight of a three-day leadership training program sponsored by the associations and the USC Gerontology Center.

Dr. Birren said the new center will unify gerontology studies being done in different parts of the USC campus and provide facilities for many new projects. He said the center will enable the faculty to study more effectively every facet of gerontology: biological, physiological, medical, psychological and economic. Their scientific study, experimentation and recommendations are designed to improve the quality of life in later years for all older Americans. Early detection of disease, pre-retirement programs, second career education, employment opportunities, housing facilities will also be studied.

The new building also will enhance the USC Gerontology Center's program of education and training, one of the most active of its kind in the nation, Dr. Birren said. At present, there are 53 graduate student trainees pursuing advanced degrees in the fields of architecture - urban and regional planning, biology, physical education, psychology, public administration, social work and sociology, in specialized approaches to these disciplines as they relate to the processes of human aging. When the trainees have completed work for the degrees, they will follow the many previous graduates of the USC Gerontology Center into careers of teaching, research and service on behalf of the nation's older citizens.

A third aspect of the center's activity is community service. A full schedule of programs and institutes is pursued each year to train persons in the various professions--ranging from senior citizens program directors to health profession personnel and to clergymen--who work with older persons.

Other community service activities include an action program to survey the needs of older citizens of the Watts-Willowbrook and Florence-Firestone communities of Los Angeles. This program is being conducted in affiliation with the Los Angeles County Model Neighborhood Program.

"The Center will be a living memorial," Dr. Birren said, "to a remarkable California educator who devoted so much of her life to improving the conditions for all older Americans."

Dr. Andrus was born in 1884 in San Francisco and served as principal of Lincoln High School in Los Angeles for 28 years. A 1930 graduate of USC, she retired in 1944, devoting the remaining 23 years of her life to a crusade to benefit older Americans. She founded the NRTA in 1947, which pioneered in providing the first nationwide group health insurance for retired teachers. In 1958, she founded AARP to extend the benefits provided to retired teachers to all older Americans.

With more than 2.75 million members, the associations are today the nation's largest organizations committed to helping older Americans achieve retirement lives of independence, dignity and purpose. The associations sponsor a wide range of income-stretching services for members and encourage participation in community, state and national public service projects.

Participants at the groundbreaking received a copy of a book, "The Wisdom of Ethel Percy Andrus," which includes this statement of her service philosophy:

"Few joys are greater than the joy of participating with a dedicated group. We are all recruits in the total human enterprise that is hoping to contribute to the ultimate good. So we enter into a community of service of hope. By so doing we transcend out allotted span of life. We deny mortality. We live for that which passes far beyond the here and now. We give to purposes that matter, that outlive one's own life."

Oil paintings on display

Oil paintings by Elizabeth Darwin of Hollywood, and the ceramics of Adrian Enriquez Jr., of Claremont, are on display at the Claremont Office of Pomona First Fderal Savings and Loan Association. The exhibit will continue through February.

Mrs. Darwin's paintings are of floral subjects, particularly roses. She also works in the medium of mosaics. Her early career was as a concert pianist. She then went into several facets of Little Theater work in Chattanooga, Tenn., with acting, writing, and directing. Upon moving to the Los Angeles area she turned her talents to costume design and execution. She holds five U.S. design patents.

A Fellow of the American Institute of Fine Arts, Mrs. Darwin at present finds oil painting her most satisfactory medium. Her works are included in forty private collections, and she has won many cash prizes and medals. She is a vice president of Showcase 21, an association of eighty artists who aid promising young talent.

This is the first public showing of Mr. Enriquez' ceramics which range from covered jars to pitchers and vases. He is a senior at Claremont High School and is a student of ceramics with Mrs. Geraldine Turner. Mr. Enriquez' studio is located at his home at 3410 Padua Ave., Claremont.

JEANNIE'S JEMS. . . .

By Jeannie Quaintance

Just to be serious for a moment, I often hear the thought expressed "so much good is done by the youth of today, but headlines and space are taken up by the protesters and rioters so there's no room for good news, so to speak."

I think with everyone working together we can eliminate that complaint. If you will do your part, sending the news in of church groups, school organizations girl scouts, campfire girls, boy scouts, and anyone else I omitted unintentionally, then I'll try to do a part and see if I can get it printed for you.

SURE FIRE WAY TO DIET . . . stick a detour sign on your refrigerator and then OBSERVE

MY FRIEND KATIE . . . heard that if you talk to plants they will grow better. Always one to take suggestions, she began singing to Affriditees, her African Violet and she assures me it has sprouted so many flowers it is getting too big for the pot.

Cows visit Kingsley students

MONTCLAIR - Larry Bentley, in charge of the mobile dairy unit from the Dairy Council of California, received an enthusiastic welcome from students and teachers at Kingsley Elementary School, Montclair.

Bentley, with the unit housing "Daisy Mae" and "Geraldine", visited the school Tuesday, Jan. 26. He travels to a different school each day and has appeared before an audience as large as 1280.

After giving the students an informative talk about cows, their nutritional needs and the milking procedures, one child from each class was chosen to milk the cow.

The children enjoyed watching teachers and principal Grover Brough take part in milking. Bentley received a 90 per cent hand show when asked how many children had not been this close to a cow before.

All the children filed past to pet Daisy Mae the calf and see and feel the feed cows eat before returning to the classroom.

Principal Brough said the teachers regarded the program as extremely interesting and attributed Bentley with furnishing so much information in such a short time.

Following the program children drew pictures and wrote essays on what they had seen and heard.

The unit is sponsored by and paid for by every dairy farmer and milk distributor in California.

Bovine event

Montclair mayor aids in judging picnic theme

"Carousel of Dreams" is the theme recently chosen for the 1971 All States Picnic annually held July 4, in Ontario.

Winner of the theme entry contest is Gaylyn Holder, daughter of the president of the All States Picnic, Inc. Gayl Holder. Miss Holder will receive a $25 U.S. Savings Bond.

When asked how the daughter of the president won the theme award, a spokesman for the picnic said, "Blame it on the judges. The entries were given to them without the name of the person entering so they didn't know."

Smashed cans

Dear Editor,

You are right about an increase in the cost of disposal service in Montclair!

It is a fact in more ways than one!

The cost of garbage cans has to be considered here. Drive down the street, and see all the smashed cans.

I believe this company takes pride in smashing cans! Do you suppose anything can be done about the treatment of garbage cans?

A person would think that maybe the company pays a bonus to their men for every can they smash!

That could be the reason why they are so destructive at it!

But you and I know that this kind of treatment of cans is uncalled for.

But, by all means let's keep the level of service as it is, or we might get that much more damage to our garbage cans.

Sincerely,
J. E. Brown

The council also voted to assist the district in its efforts to pass the bond. The proposal will go before district voters on March 16.

WHEN TO SPRINKLE
Although the time of day is not particularly important, early morning is preferable to midday, when water evaporates rapidly, and evening, when the turf stays wet longer and becomes susceptible to fungus disease. After breakfast and two hours or so after lunch are other favorable sprinkling times.

Fikes publishes

By ROBIN STEWART

Bob J. Fikes, an industrial arts teacher at Alta Loma High School, wrote an article published in the January issue of School Shop.

The article describes the construction of a flexible "shadow box" used as an electronic project housing. This flexible enclosure is simple to build, and allows the electronics student to concentrate on the overall project rather than waste learning time construction on enclosure.

This box can be made with any desired dimensions. It is made of sheet metal bent to form a base and a cover which is held together with two screws on the top of the component.

Fikes has previously had articles published. Fikes' ideas and inventions are being used at schools throughout the country.

Bill introduced

A bill introduced in the Assembly, Sacramento, last week would create a state rent supplement program, patterned after the federal program. It would also provide seed money for community low - rent housing programs.

Other bills introduced would require creditors to deduct payments before computing interest on retail installment accounts; Bill AB 284 would provide $200,000 for the establishment of summer youth conservation corps.

Bill AB 224 would allow counties to levy taxes for support of children's centers for preschoolers. Another bill would prohibit sending California residents to serve involuntarily in undeclared wars.

On the plus side for veterans, a new bill would make wives of servicemen stationed in California residents for the purpose of admissions to state colleges.

Students enroll

Fall quarter enrollments at the University of California at Santa Cruz has increased 19.3 per cent in the past year. Aiding this growth are students from the West End.

Santa Cruz has five individual colleges, Cowell, Adlai F. Stevenson, Crown, Merrill and College V.

Enrolled in Stevenson College is William Mario Rota, of Alta Loma. He is majoring in economics and is a junior. Also attending Stevenson as a freshman is John Worley Eagle of Cucamonga. He is a chemistry major.

Upland residents attending are Dan Peter Baoot, a freshman at College V majoring in Biology; Anne Marshall Fleck, a freshman at College V; Leonard Joseph Kobrinsky, a freshman at Merrill College majoring in Biology.

Other Upland residents are Patricia Yetta Logan, a junior at College V majoring in politics and Linda Esther Meyer, a literature major, junior, at Stevenson College.

Clownball game planned at Chaffey

Clownball fans will get the chance to see the game at its comical best at 8 p.m. Friday, Feb. 5 in Chaffey College's Earl Sicosky gymnasium.

That's when the Harlem Travelers will inflict their brand of basketball talent on "the mostest" in height, fancy dancing and sharpshooting by the Black Student Union here.

Leading Harlem's court jesters will be 6-10 Art "Bones" Smith, who is regarded as the "Clown Prince" of basketball. Smith and teammate Bobby Blue are the founders of the five-year-old Travelers.

Chaffey's BSU plans to match Smith with their own giant, Fred Hicks. Hicks, who also stands at 6-10, is a former Chaffey College great from the 1968-69 cage squad.

The BSU is contacting Hicks for a commitment. He now resides in Los Angeles.

Although the CC Blacks have not released a definite starting lineup yet, a tentative squad has been announced.

The Chaffey squad will be coached by BSU President Frank Bowie.

Although the Travelers execute razzle-dazzle ball handling, precision pass patterns, trick shooting, crazy dribbling, and spontaneous comedy, the BSU possesses its own type of talent. The Chaffey Blacks are the present intramural basketball champions here.

Considered as the funniest basketball team in America, the Harlem Travelers are a combine of hoop stars who tour the country making people laugh. They are without a doubt "tops in comic basketball."

The game (or show) is sponsored by the Associated Students Coordinating Council

Tickets will be sold at the door at $1.50 for adults, and $1 for students and children.

New campground at Glen Helen Park

The San Bernardino County Department of Regional Parks has announced the opening of a new 3 1/2-acre campground Friday, January 15 at Glen Helen Regional Park.

Of the 45 spaces, 32 are equipped with charcoal grills, picnic tables and benches sheltered by seasonal trees and chaparral in the warm summer months, but exposed to the sun during the winter.

The remaining 13 campsites have natural gas grills and street lighting along with the tables and benches.

Nearby is a large community fire pit with benches for group activities.

The unique facilities also include modern showers and restrooms, running water and a dumping station.

The fee for each camping unit is $2 per day and pedestrians may enter without charge.

Motorcycles not playthings

Motorcycles are fun but also can be dangerous if the operator has not had proper training in the safe operation of the motorcycle. This was the advice given to the parents of the Marshall School at their regular monthly PTA meeting. Officer L. B. Hudson, Information and Education Officer for the California Highway Patrol's Pomona Area was the guest speaker.

Officer Hudson also talked about other aspects of the motorcycle. He pointed out that you may not park, move or drive any motorcycle, motor-driven cycle, minibike or trail bike on any California highway unless it is property registered.

As far as driver licenses are concernred, he said that California law requires that your driver's license be endorsed to permit operation of a two-wheel motorcycle. A Class 4 endorsement meets this requirement. However, if you have a valid Class 1, 2 or 3 license that was issued before Nov. 13, 1968, you may drive a two-wheel motorcycle until your license expires. You must then get a Class 4 license or have your license endorsed to permit you to drive a motorcycle. If you intend to use public roads while learning to drive, you must get an instruction permit.

You must be at least 15 1/2 years old to obtain a permit. If you are under 18, such permit may not be used for operation of a motorcycle until you have completed your automobile driver education and driver training instruction.

If you drive a motorcycle with an instruction permit, you must not drive on any freeway and you must not drive after dark.

Instruction and training must be emphasized if motorcycle accidents are to be reduced. He pointed out that nearly 17% of all fatal accidents in the California Highway Patrol's Pomona Area involved a motorcycle.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick G. Greene

Greene-Mc Donald

UPLAND-Sisters of the bride and brothers of the groom were the attendants at the wedding of Kathleen McDonald and Patrick G. Greene in St. Margaret's Church in Chino.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Mc Donald of Upland was attended by her sisters Jacquelyn, honor attendant; Susan and Bonnie, bridesmaids; Nancy, junior bridesmaid and Bette and Carol, flower girls.

The groom, presently stationed at Norton Air Force Base, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Greene of Claremont. He chose for his best man John McDermott of Alhambra. His brothers, Abner, Leo, Paul and Philip, seated the 100 guests.

The bride was attired in a flowing white floor-length gown featuring a ruffled neckline and sleeves. A beaded tiara held her waist length veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations with a white gardenia in the center.

The newlyweds are graduates of Pomona Catholic High School. Greene is a Sergeant in the Air Force stationed in San Bernardino. The new Mrs. Greene is vice president of a local Christian anti - Communism study group.

Mitschka-Talbot

LA VERNE - In double-ring rites performed at Pilgrim Congregational Church of Pomona, Miss Barbara Jeanne Talbot exchanged wedding vows with Christopher Allen Mitschka, of La Verne.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Talbot of St. Paul, Minn., was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Miss Lynette Wiley, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Perry L. McCuen and Miss Ann White.

Twins, Billie and Joyce Upchurch, were flower girls.

Dennis Wright served as best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald White of Pomona. Ushers were Dominic Melillo and Gregory Talbot, brother of the bride. Mark Talbot, another brother, was candlelighter.

Following the reception in Pilgrim Hall, the couple honeymooned in Las Vegas, Nev., returning to make their home in La-Verne.

Mrs. Mitschka

Venables-Downs

SAN DIMAS -- Mr. and Mrs. Robert Venables of Baltimore, Md., announce the marriage of their daughter, Ann Breckinridge Venables, to Douglas Walker Downs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker W. Downs of San Dimas, on Jan. 15 at the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Chester A. Wickwire, Chaplain at Johns Hopkins University, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family. Mrs. Andrew G. Schenk Jr. was matron of honor. Best man was Charles Elliott.

The bride attended the University of Maryland, was graduated from Goucher College, and has been in the graduate program in art history at Johns Hopkins University. For the past four years, the bride has been librarian at the Baltimore Museum of Art.

The bridegroom was graduated from Whittier College, attended Claremont Graduate School, and served as a teaching assistant at Arizona State University, where he is a candidate for the masters degree in art history.

After a honeymoon in northern California, Mr. and Mrs. Downs will reside in Santa Monica where the groom is engaged in art bronze casting and in sculpturing.

Smith-Buxton

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Buxton of La Verne, was given in marriage by her father. The groom is the son of Mrs. Victor Mikulas of Redondo Beach and the late Dr. Carl William Smith.

Serving as matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Michael Murray of Lafayette. Ronald Lee was best man.

Following a garden reception, the couple honeymooned at Idyllwild. They are now making their home in Los Angeles.

Miss Bohnenberger

Jessica Bohnenberger

Mrs. Smith

LA VERNE - The betrothal of Miss Jessica Ann Bohnenberger to Constantino Carvajal Alvarez is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bohnenberger of La Verne.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Pomona Catholic Girls High and Mt. San Antonio College.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alvarez, La Puente, attended Loyola University, Los Angeles, and Citrus Junior College, and is presently stationed at Ft. Ord, Cal.

A summer wedding is planned.

Saints clobber Sherman High

SAN DIMAS -- The San Dimas Saints won their 13th game to go with 3 losses, as they demolished Sherman HighSchool from Riverside, 73-57.

Jeff Nelson and Jerry Klein, with 25 points each, led the Saints past the tough Braves. The Braves' sharpshooting guard, Toby Watahomigie, netted 28 in a losing cause.

It was a highly physical game as the battle under the board was rough and tough. Jeff Nelson, with a twisted ankle, gamely stayed in the contest until 1:37 of the fourth quarter.

It was the finest game of the season for Jerry Klein, who had a bit of trouble early finding the range, but at the urging of Coach Bob Espinoza that he should "keep going to the basket," Klein got a "hot hand" and had 17 in the first half. In the second half, the Indians used their big Vic Van Fleet to sag into Klein's zone, and held him, somewhat.

Wayne Moses had 8, John Schober with 6, and Jim Schaumleffel's 4, was the Saints total offense. Oscar Ross got into the scoring column with 5.

Nelson and Klein had 16 and 17 respectively in the first half, as they took a 38-22 lead to the showers at intermission.

It was two victories last week, as they also downed CSDR, in spite of the Riverside school's 7-foot center.

They have a showdown in the offing with Aquinas, currently the number 4 ranked 1A CIF team. Aquinas barely slipped by the Saints in their last encounter, and San Dimas is looking for revenge.

Pony-Colt applications available

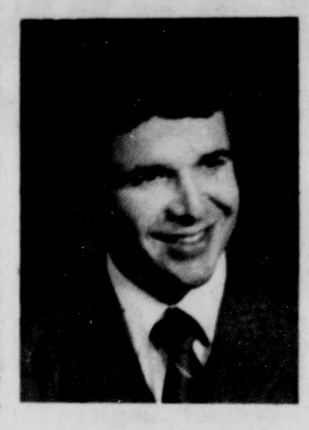
WALNUT VALLEY - Applications are still available for boys in the Pony and Colt divisions in the Walnut Valley baseball league.

The Pony league covers ages 13 and 14 while the Colt takes in 15 and 16 year old boys.

Anyone interested in joining the league may call Jim Vallandingham at 595-8441 or Jack Devers at 595-6860. The fee this year is $14 for the first family boy, $10 for the second boy and $6 for the third boy with a maximum of $30 per family.

DB Aquatics take first place

DIAMOND BAR-- Coached by George Coonis, the Diamond Bar Aquatics Club recently won its first meet. The newly formed swim team is composed of youngsters from The Hills Swim Club and The Diamond Point Swim Club, both in Diamond Bar.



George Coonis

Coonis is the manager and recreation director of The Hills Club, private recreation facility provided for residents of The Hills by M. J. Brock & Sons, Inc., builder of the Diamond Bar development.

The first meet was with the youth team from Mt. San Antonio College, was won without ever having practiced together as a team.

Coonis' career in recreation began in 1962 in the United States Navy, where he was an instructor in physical fitness and swimming and was a member of the swim and boxing teams.

After his discharge in 1966, he gained recognition in several major Southern California recreation-oriented communities for his championship swimming teams and his excellent club management.

Bonita stomps Garey

The Bonita Bearcats got their basketball express back on the winning track by rolling over the Garey Vikings in convincing fashion 84-54. It was a different story from the last game with the Vikings, when they made it close.

Dave Shamblin, subbing for Krueger, has been a real spark plug to his mates. His 11 points, coupled with a host of rebounds, helped fill the gap left by their missing center. Shamblin had an outstanding performance in his first full game last week against Pomona, when he dropped in 11 also, but hauled down 19 rebounds, in a losing,but game, effort by the Bearcats.

Dan McCleary was high point man in the Garey game with 20. Three more Bearcats scored in double figures. Marty Habern (13) Randy Russell (12), Shamblin (11), with Dan Gould's 9 close behind. Most of the Bearcats had an opportunity to get on the boards as Tom Jones (8), Mike Grouf (6), Curtis Frick (4) and Richard Devore (3) scored.

Garey, a running and gunning club, looked pretty weak as Bonita took charge of the game throughout. Center Greg Ballard had 13 to lead their attack.

The rebounding of Dave Shamblin, along with the proven ability of Kip Krueger in the Bearcat lineup, could give the hometowners the lift they can use to make a run at Chino and Montclair for second place.

Rotarians bridge gap

UPLAND – Area Rotarians "bridged the gap" between the generations last month when they sponsored a youth conference at a camp in the San Bernardino Mountains.

The conference, themed "What About Tomorrow" paired one Rotarian with two high school students for the weekend.

Attending from the Upland Rotary was Harvey Stone, president of the local chapter. His two companions were both from Upland High School's Interact Club. The students were Phil Boortz, president of the club and son of Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Boortz of Upland and Richard Coyle.

1971-'72 registration

By ROBIN STEWART

Registration will begin Feb. 9 at Alta Loma High School for all students except present seniors.

Registration for present eighth graders will begin at the junior high schools Feb. 10. This registration will require all students to make decisions now about their 1971-72 schedule.

It is hoped that parents will involve themselves in this decision-making process and be aware of plans that are being made, high school sources indicated. Students may select six or less classes for the coming year.

Counselors will be talking with all students during the next four to six weeks about their next year's schedule.

Parents are encouraged to contact their student's counselor at the high school if they have questions about next year's program.

In a bloomin'rush?

According to George Groundhog on Feb. 2, winter is still six weeks from ending. His "hotline" to the trees and shrubs is apparently out of operation in Upland. Rushing the season in this flower-filled tree, one of several around the parking lot on the corner of 9th Street and 3rd Avenue.

AFS Club

By ROBIN STEWART

The American Field Service Club of Alta Loma High School is seeking families to volunteer to house the foreign exchange student for next year.

Families who would like to volunteer their home should contact Mrs. James Page, 984-1071, Mrs. Melvin Pedvin, 987-3464, or Miss Mary Pollock, director of activities, 987-2582.

The club is attempting to raise $1,800 to finance the exchange of students for the coming year. A Clabe Hangan Concert was held last month along with a taco sale.

AFS will hold their annual "White Tag" sale the first two weeks of March. Again this year, local merchants will join in to add discount benefits with the purchase of a tag.

Displaying the tag at participating merchants allow discounts on indicated items, as well as aid a student to travel abroad. The price of the tags is $1.

The current exchange student at Alta Loma, Nitzia Gisela Santiago from Panama is residing with the H. Archibalds of Cucamonga. She will begin her rounds of social engagements and appearances in the spring semester.

Finalists from Alta Loma High School to participate in the exchange program were previously announced to be Laura Anderson and Catalina Martinez.

Officers currently planning future fund raising projects are Marilyn Dodson, president, Leslie Clayton, vice president, and Pam Gingerich, secretary.

Power sewing program at CC

Owing to the garment industry's need for skilled employes, Chaffey College is continuing its power-sewing program in Chino.

Instructor Libby Bajcer's records show that garment employe placement has averaged 50 women yearly since the open-ended training program at 13180 Sixth St., was started three years ago.

"The garment industry is one of the few fields that has maintained a firm employment level during the current recession," Mrs. Bajcer reported. "Our consistent placement rate is the proof of the pudding," she said.

Chaffey's power-sewing program is also a free and generous source of children's clothes for six community agencies as well as a number of schools and churches.

The agencies using the Chaffey products are Santa Clause, Inc., Neighborhood House, Council of Social Services, Red Cross, Pacific State Hospital and Casa Colina Hospital.

"We should be known as an environmental clean-up service, too," Mrs. Bajcer commented. "That's because we 'recycle' any donated odds and ends that can be sewn together," she explained.

Power-sewing day classes are from 8:30 a.m. until 2 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays; evening classes, 4 until 10 p.m. Monday through Wesnesdays.

The Chaffey power-sewing training shop is equipped with 25 stations, 20 single needle machines and five special machines.

Trainees may enroll in the program at any time. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Bajcer at 627-4116 or the college at 987-1737, 822-7456 or 626-9811 (extension 227).

Winter concert at Cal Poly

The Chamber Orchestra of California State Polytechnic College presents its winter quarter concert on Saturday, Feb. 6 at 8:15 p.m. in the college theater.

James E. Mooney, assistant professor of music, will conduct the student group in Gretry's Overture to the Opera "Lucille," Offenbach's La Belle Helene, Buxtehude's Chaconne in E minor, and Mozarts' The Magic Flute Overture. After intermission the program will continue with Handel's Suite from the Water Music, Dvorak's Slavonic Dance, Styne and Merrill's Funny Girl Overture. Selections included in the Overture are People, Don't Rain on My Parade, Who Are You Now, the Music that Makes Me Dance, and You Are Woman, I Am Man.

The concert is open to the public for $1 general admission and 75¢ student admission. Future presentations by the Music Department during the winter quarter will be the Band Concert on March 5, and the Choral Concert on March 12.

Final inspection

Ruben S. Ayala, Chairman of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors, and Stanley Warburton, President of Chaffey Community College, inspect new directional sign recently installed by the State Division of Highways on the San Bernardino Freeway at the Haven Avenue off-ramps. Second District Supervisor Daniel D. Mikesell, who was instrumental in obtaining the signs, was unable to join the other gentlemen.

Savings and Loans finance over half the homes in this country

by Lewis S. Eaton, Vice President
United States Savings and Loan League

We've been committed to helping American families buy homes for over a hundred years.

Take the last three years, for example. Three years when money was tight. Three years when mortgage money seemed to be drying up.

1967: Savings and Loan Associations supplied 56% of the total mortgage loans made, providing 17.8 billion dollars.

1968: Savings and Loan Associations supplied 58% of the annual total, providing 19 billion dollars.

1969: Savings and Loan Associations made 59% of the total, providing 18.9 billion dollars for home mortgages.

And our commitment will be honored this year, too, by providing over half the home mortgage money.

We're facing the future with confidence. We have good reason.

The Savings and Loan industry has currently invested over 150 billion dollars in residential home mortgages.

And we did it by encouraging thrift. By employing the savings of our 45 million depositors—investing and re-investing in home mortgages.

Over the years, in fact, more than 90% of Savings and Loan investments have been in loans on residential properties.

When it comes to home financing, Savings and Loan Associations will continue their leadership.

Because—we're committed to it.

We might ask, "Where would our housing supply be if there were no Savings and Loan Associations?"

Are You Operating Your Business Under A Fictitious Name?

If So You Must Re-Register it Now! See News Article Below

New Law in effect:

A prediction that 300,000 firms doing business in California under fictitious trade names will re-file under the new fictitious firm name law was made this week by William G. Sharp, county clerk of Los Angeles County. Sharp is chairman of a committee of county clerks which has been preparing procedures for the new statute.

The new requirement for re-filing of all firm names goes into effect July 1, 1971, but Sharp said the filings will be accepted by the county clerk's offices beginning Monday, and he urged early filing in order to avoid the rush just before the July 1 deadline. The filing fee under the new law will be $10. Filings must be renewed hereafter at five year intervals.

The Los Angeles county clerk also pointed out that the historic publication requirement has been continued under the new law and that publication of the statement once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the neighborhood of the affected business is required whenever there has been any change in the information contained in the certificate previously filed. Publication will not be required in instances where there has been no change in the information carried in the old certificate.

A fictitious name, Sharp pointed out, is one that does not include the surname of the operator or one that implies the existence of other owners; or, if a corporation, if it includes a name other than the name given in the articles of incorporation.

The purpose of the fictitious business name procedure is to protect the consumer in enabling him to find out the person with whom he is really dealing, Sharp said. If he has been defrauded by the "John Doe Television and Time Clock Repair Shop" and the shop is really owned and operated by "Richard Roe" or the "East Ganawanda Land and Farming Corporation," the consumer can find in the fictitious name statement information for bringing suit for damages. The procedure provides a ready source of information concerning identity realities obscured by fictitious business or trade names. Most banks now require evidence that the fictitious filing and publication requirements have been met before they will open an account under a fictitious name.

The office of each county clerk will furnish forms required by the new law or information and forms from this newspaper.

Sections 17900-17930 of Business and Professions Code in Effect Jan. 1, 1971*

Refiling Dead-Line July 1, 1971

County Clerk's Filing Fee is $10 for Re-Filing or New Filing*

Publication Charge Will Be $23.00 If Publication Required.

*Old civil code sections prevail in part until July 1, with filing charge of $2.00. Only a single publication required for interim $2 filing and for the prospective $10 refiling.
